What do you teach at James L. Collins Catholic School and how long have you been teaching here?

I teach Kindergarten and began working at James L. Collins Catholic School in 2017; however, I taught for 5 years prior to coming to JLCCS.

What college did you attend and what degree do you hold?

I attended Texas A&M Commerce and I hold a Bachelors Degree in Early Childhood Education EC-6th Grade

What motivates you each morning when you come to work?

My student's motivate me to come to work each morning. They are like my second set of children and I'm truly blessed to be their teacher. I love my class.

How do you incorporate the 4 cornerstones into your daily classroom setting?

I incorporate the 4 cornerstones each day through example and practice. I treat my students the way I expect them to treat others. Our classroom is like our own community.

What would your students be surprised to find out about you?

I think they would be surprised to know that I live in the country with lots of cows and other animals.

What is one thing that sets your teaching method apart from other teachers at other schools?

We are fortunate to be able to create a Christ centered learning environment here at James L. Collins and it sets us apart from other schools!

What is your favorite aspect about teaching at a Christian school?

I love being able to share my faith and my love for Jesus. I love that we can relate our students successes and struggles to God's Word.

Which event at the school do you look forward to and why?

I'm looking forward to Christmas because it is such a joyous time for Christians.

What advice would you give to your students to help them be more successful?

Always do your best, even if it's not perfect. All that matters is that you give 100 percent in all you do!
